Situated in the centre of The Hague and enjoying an excellent reputation, the HSV International Primary School has approximately 630 (growing to 700+) children following a full primary curriculum, delivered in English, currently across four locations: KSS, NSL, VNS and VHS location. The Lighthouse Special Education School is housed in the heart of the VHS location in the Bezuidenhout area of the city. The school's curriculum is based on England's National Curriculum for English (Literacy) and Mathematics, the core subjects. The children also attend therapy with the onsite speech and language or physical therapists or occupational therapist.
